Worksheet:
LARRY'S STORY

Larry is thinking to himself "this party is dead" when his friends Ray and Steven arrive. As they talk Larry looks up and sees three girls walk in the door. Larry recognizes one - that really cute girl he sees every day at the bus stop in front of his house. Someone told him her name is Diane. Larry smiles to himself, "Yes! Finally a chance to meet her" but then freezes thinking, "but how am I going to do it without looking stupid."

Think of two ways Larry might meet Diane:
1.
2.

Larry sees Diane walk over by herself to get a soda. All of a sudden he feels nervous and his stomach tenses up. He almost goes up to her but chickens out. Later, he sees her standing by herself. This time he takes a deep breath, walks up to her and says,

What are two ways that Larry might know Diane is interested in him?
1.
2.

What are two ways that Larry might know that Diane is NOT interested in him?
1.
2.

The next week Larry stops to talk with Diane at the bus stop. Larry thinks how great it would be to ask Diane out, but he isn't sure if she likes him. He asks some friends if she is going out with anyone. They say she isn't.

Finally Larry decides to ask Diane out. One day Larry sees Diane and tells her about a picnic his neighbors are having. He feels a knot in his stomach but asks, "Do you want to go?" Diane says, "Sure, that would be great."
At the picnic, Larry is nervous. They have a lot to talk about but sometimes there are long silences. Larry thinks, "I'm not sure if she's just shy or bored or doesn't like me." But she seems to be having a good time. As they walk home, Larry thinks how much he likes Diane and how great it would be to kiss her. But he isn't sure how she would react. What are two signs that might show Larry that Diane was ready to kiss him?

1.
2.

Larry and Diane start spending a lot more time together. He likes it that he can just be himself with her. She is the first girl he can talk to about real stuff - like his problems with his dad and how he feels about his brother's death last year.

One night Larry and Diane go to a movie and he remembers how great it is to kiss Diane. After the movie Larry and Diane are kissing on the couch at Diane's house. Larry feels himself get an erection. He rubs her back outside her blouse, then under her blouse. When he moves to touch her breast, Diane takes his hand and moves it away. What are two things Larry can do in this situation?

1.
2.

The next time Larry and Diane are alone together, they are kissing. Larry again feels himself get an erection. Diane moves closer to him and he thinks she must be turned on too. He caresses her breasts and she seems to respond. Larry thinks about touching her between her legs. What are two signs that might show that Diane wants Larry to go further?

1.
2.

One time after work Larry has a huge fight with his mom. He is really upset and decides to go over to Diane's house. As he tells her about the fight, she starts touching him and kissing him. Larry isn't in the mood to be sexual but doesn't know what to do. He doesn't want Diane to think he doesn't like her, and he worries, "Boys are supposed to always want it." What are two things Larry can do in this situation?

1.
2.
Larry’s friend Ray is always talking about how many girls he’d had. Larry wonders what Ray would say if he knew he and Diane have not had intercourse yet. He thinks a lot about intercourse with Diane, but doesn’t want to pressure her. Maybe she isn’t ready. Or maybe she is. He wonders if he can talk to her about it. What can Larry do in this situation?

1.
2.

How can Larry start a conversation with Diane about having intercourse?

1.
2.

When Larry brings it up, Diane seems surprised, but says she is glad he said something because she had been thinking about it too. She says that she doesn’t want to rush into it because they haven’t known each other very long. Larry is disappointed but starts thinking of other ways they can be close sexually. What are two ways Larry and Diane can be sexual without having intercourse?

1.
2.

One afternoon, Larry and Diane are at his house, kissing in his room. Larry is very turned on and moves his hand to touch Diane between her legs like he has done before. Diane mumbles, “No” and pushes his hand away. Larry feels confused and angry. He wonders, “What’s the problem. We’ve done this before. Why is she saying ‘no’ now?” What are two things Larry can do in this situation?

1.
2.

A few weeks later, Larry’s parents are away. Larry says, “I’m so turned on. Let’s do it.” Diane says she thinks she wants to, but isn’t sure. What are two things Larry and Diane might want to talk about before deciding to have intercourse?

1.
2. 